

Russian Revolution

2005. Russia, at last, has ripened for people's democratic revolution. Groups of anonymous authority of the West think, that it will be liberal revolution. Let think. Its arrival have prepared velvet revolutions in Georgia, Ukraine, Moldova and Kyrgyzstan. But, I believe, in Russia it will be counterrevolution. To explain this phenomenon to all it is senseless. Therefore we pass to the thesis about Russian revolution. Orthodox revolution.

February revolution of 1917 has led to authority moderate circles of Masonic intelligence. October revolution of 1917 has led to authority in Russia radical circles of masons illuminati and puritans. In anyone deal in Russia to authority there came representatives of the Jewish Diaspora oppressed with an imperial mode and Orthodoxy (at a sight of Jews, certainly).

Any of the basic slogans of revolutions in Russia has not been realized in practice. Russian people deceive repeatedly and it is trampled in abyss of a genocide and oppression by a Masonic civilization. Disintegration of the USSR in 1991 and bourgeois-democratic revolution has again kept a mode of the Masonic civilization at authority, moved was from a feeding trough Stalin's dictatorship and his communistic successors in 1937. Seen attributes of freedom have enabled to spread B. Yeltsin's totalitarian mode, which the main problem saw physical destruction of the population by carrying out of terrible reforms in Russia. Change of a management of a ruling mode with V. Putin has not brought Russia anything, except for the factor of stability. Air of freedom has let out pairs indignation and has obscured brains to the majority of the population which years expected improvements of a life, starving and ding out from illnesses, stresses, a narcotics. The main task of anonymous authority of the West - utter annihilation of Russia is not executed yet. The following step in this direction on a plan of ideologists of a Masonic civilization should become velvet revolution in Russia. For a role of the leader of this revolution now pass shows many selling and known personnel's of political elite of Russia. Fortunately, such bright and independent person at them is not present. Personnel famine affects not only Putin's security officers.

For the preservation of Russia as independent state and Russian people as most ancient and unique genie material of all Western and East civilizations, it is necessary to seize a revolutionary wave which arises in Russia and it is warmed up by cataclysms and revolutions at neighbors on the countries CIS. In case of capture of leadership by revolution by our direct and obvious religious enemies on behalf of Jews or their proteges, Russia to not avoid a collapse and the rivers of blood.

The primary goal of orthodox democracy becomes carrying out by nonviolent methods of Russian revolution with overthrow existing building groups of the anonymous authority, based by a Masonic civilization in far 1917. Experience of Serbia, Georgia, Ukraine and Kyrgyzstan, which basis of success hide in accumulation of the corruption capital and use of the service position with a view of personal enrichment shows a full inconsistency of existing authorities. At presence of the slightest threat of loss of health, a life and money such "masters" run up as a rat from the sinking ship. It is no wonder, that all authority proper tying already for a long time have prepared emergency platforms for residing at the countries of the "advanced" democracy. There their children already study, there live wives and mistresses. Are stored steal capitals. They carry out there leisure and holidays.

What basic slogans and motivations of revolutions have not been executed in Russia and should come to the end with a victory of Russian revolution?

First, the favorite slogan of masons and progressive mankind - « Freedom. Equality. Brotherhood ».

Freedom. As in Russia there will be an Orthodox revolution Orthodox Freedom should triumph. The freedom of speech and other private, public freedom should become a real part of a life of Russian people, instead of property of the "elected" elites and members of their families.

Equality. It should become norm of a life of Russian people when all citizens should be equal before the law, access to mass-media, formation, public health services, habitation, business and resources, and also to distribution of the national income.

Brotherhood. Russian revolution will have a religious shade, but will be carried out in interests Orthodox, Moslems and Jew. All of us adherents of monotheism, brothers and sisters. There is nobody who will be higher than another either the elected God or malicious will of the person. All of us brothers and sisters.

Second, the ground and did not become the property of Russian people. The peasantry drags half-starved existence. Resources, mineral, natural riches - all at us have stolen groups of anonymous authority by means of privatizations and plunders of national property of the USSR.

Thirdly, means of production of imperial Russia and the USSR, industrial potential, have been seized by extortionate privatization by representatives of groups of anonymous authority and the Jewish Diaspora. National bourgeoisie, average and small business are paralyzed by system of corruption and anathema from the basic means of production, power resources and raw material. The banking capital and monetary System of Russia are not effective owing to weakness of ruble and not convertibility of national currency.

Fourthly, the working class till now is enslave and deprived of civil rights, deprived effective trade-union movement, protection of the interests and support of the state.

Fifthly, the freedom of worship has provided freedom only for sectarians, atheists and Satanists of all colors, members of groups of anonymous authority, having equated to them traditional and mass religions of Orthodoxy and the Islam. Thus, put on the same level the law of admirers of the God and the Satan.

Sixthly, political freedoms have remained an empty phrase by acceptance of antinational laws « About political parties », having transformed political parties in a mass congestion of the amorphous weight ostensibly reflecting interests of people, but created only by means of an administrative resource.

Seventhly, the political authority, mass-media, means of production and resources are seized by international structures of groups of anonymous authority and the Jewish Diaspora, in other words the recent past - the international imperialism. To Russian people has got slaves.

By 2005 in Russia there was a revolutionary situation.

Crisis of tops consists in impossibility of management of the country and preservations of the domination in a constant kind. Bluff democrat B. Yeltsin were replaced by " fair security officers » V. Putin. The control system of the country by authoritativeness is limited to a personnel resource of security officers - masons. They do not have opportunity to keep controllability Russia old Soviet methods of an administrative resource more. It is exhausted. The slightest shocks they sweep will deduce on streets of hundred thousand people, and criminal authority. For preservation by controllability by Russia hurrah - patriots who verbal flubdub will try to let out next pairs indignation of Russians are looked for. Zhirinovsky, Zyuganov, Rogozin, who the following? The lie of last 90 years any more does not roll.

The aggravation of need and the disasters oppressed with groups of anonymous authority, Russian bourgeoisie, working class, peasantry, militaries and militias is available also. At presence many milliard gold and exchange stocks and stabilization fund people stays in a depression.

Substantial increase of political activity of weights is caused by revolutionary processes of neighbors of Russia across the CIS, impossibility of protection of the rights and freedom in working authority, imposing by groups of anonymous authority of a cult of Satana in mass-media, is especial on TV. Russian people understands, that in the country there are no rules of law of change of ruling modes, observance of human rights, the domination of criminal elite does not allow even chance to carry out national will. Russian people day by day feels increase in the spiritual and economic slavery.

Any referenda, elections of deputies, governors, Presidents Russian people does not become the owner of the ground Russian. I shall not give the right on existence to a mode of groups of anonymous authority of more than two years. Till 2007 V. Putin's criminal mode will be change popular uprising. There is no necessity to wait falsifications of the next elections. They will have time to be prepared for them to break change of authority.

We not slaves! Slaves not we!

Get out groups of anonymous authority!

Get out Putin's mode!

Long live Russian revolution!
